Roads

The routes included in this map are directed along the asphalt, gravel and sand roads of low and medium intensity. For the routes leading to Jelgava city, it is desirable to use combined pedestrian and bike paths, or cycle lanes where they are created.

For the routes leading to Christmas Battle memorials it is advisable to pick up a GPS to help orientate in the numerous forest road nets.

The routes have several sectors where the road surface is sandy, and it is likely that a bike will be pushed at hand. Several places after rains may be more difficult passable.

Riding along the road, follow the principles of safe cycling – use reflective elements for clothing and the bicycle and when moving in darkness, be sure to use light lanterns.

Accommodation and other services

When staying in hotels, guest houses and country houses you will enjoy the hospitality of the people of this area. Accommodation costs can range from 5 to 45 euros a person. When travelling during the summer season and looking for accommodation at the weekend, it is advisable to apply for accommodation in advance. If you plan to visit farming objects included in the routes and learn more about the farm operation, it is advisable to apply for the guided tour in advance. When going out of town or in village, we advise you to take the cash with you. You may enjoy tasty meal in local food establishments or cook yourselves, by purchasing the necessary products in supermarkets, small shops or local farms. You can make the selected cycle routes more interesting by using local guide services. You may apply for tour availability in the Jelgava regional tourism centre.

Safety

You can feel safe in the city and rural areas of Latvia if you observe elemental precautions. However, if during your travel a doubt or dispute arises, remember that Latvia has created a special tourist information hotline Tourist Hotline 1188 and in any extreme situation, you can turn for help to the European single Extraordinary events freephone 112.

The start and end point of the route is the Tower of the Holy Trinity church of Jelgava. It can be started from the railway station "Jelgava", as well as to combine with the route "Jelgava – the left bank of the Lielupe Jelgava and Svēte flood-plain".

The total distance of the route: 16 km

The route allows you to enjoy the diverse town of Jelgava – from the tombs of the Dukes of Courland and wild horses to the industrial heritage. This is an interesting route for anyone who wants to know the history of Jelgava in an environmentally friendly way.

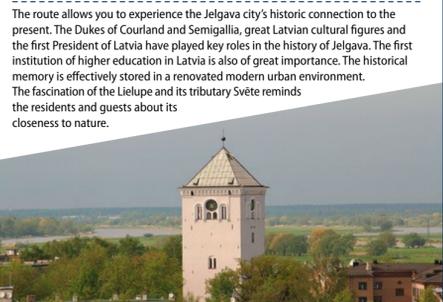

410 Jelgava – the left bank of the Lielupe and Svēte Flood-plain

The start and end point of the route is the Tower of the Holy Trinity church of Jelgava. It can be started from the railway station "Jelgava", as well as to combine with the route "Jelgava – the right bank of the Lielupe" or "Visiting the noble horses and frisky goats".

The total distance of the route: 22 km

The route allows you to experience the Jelgava city's historic connection to the present. The Dukes of Courland and Semigallia, great Latvian cultural figures and the first President of Latvia have played key roles in the history of Jelgava. The first institution of higher education in Latvia is also of great importance. The historical memory is effectively stored in a renovated modern urban environment. The fascination of the Lielupe and its tributary Svēte reminds the residents and guests about its closeness to nature.

Welcome to Jelgava and its surroundings!

The bicycle route map including a wide variety of information on tourism opportunities in Jelgava, Jelgava county and Ozolnieki county is in your hands.

In this area, you will come across the historical evidence of Courland and Semigallia. Jelgava – the former capital of the Duchy of Courland – keeps a lot of important and interesting historical facts that can be revealed by the tower of Jelgava Holy Trinity Church, G. Elias Jelgava History and Art Museum, Jelgava palace. A vivid historical testimony is given by the impressive manors and parks built in Jelgava county – in Blankenfelde, Zālenieki, Eleja, Vircava, Lielplatone, Vilce and Stalģene. The area of Jelgava area is the home of many talented and important Latvian personalities – the first President of Latvia Jānis Čakste, the Latvian theatre father Adolfs Alunāns, the writer Edvarts Virza, the painter Gederts Elias, the singer Nora Bumbers, as well as the today's popular group "Brainstorm" and other well known personalities.

The rivers Lielupe un Driksa in the city of Jelgava form the Pilis island, on which the Jelgava Palace is located and the area of which is covered with flood-land meadows where more than 40 wild horses are grazing. You can get a ride by a variety of water transport vehicles along the Lielupe. Enjoy a lovely hike or a bike ride along the promenades or across the new pedestrian bridge Mitava connecting the city centre with the Pasta island.

The unique landscapes of the Zemgale Plain can be seen in Jelgava county and Ozolnieki county. The cultivated agriculture land, various tributaries of the Lielupe and protected natural territories create harmonious environment helping to forget the tension of big cities.

A great way to explore the area is riding a bicycle along one of the local cycling routes. The routes in Jelgava provide an opportunity to enjoy the diverse town – from the tombs of the Dukes of Courland and wild horses to the industrial heritage. The route "Following the tracks of the first President of Latvia" presents the life and work of the life and work of our first President Jānis Čakste. Interesting routes lead to the memorial sites of the Christmas Battles.

Thanks to the good rail traffic on the route Rīga – Jelgava it is possible to plan travelling around Semigallia by bike from Jelgava – especially in the directions of Tērvete, Dobele and Auce.

In Jelgava and its surroundings, you will always find a way how to spend your leisure time well and effectively. Get inspired and be happy while travelling in Jelgava county and Ozolnieki county!
