You are welcome to see city's acquisitions –
unseen before places of hospitable Jelgava!

One of the World most famous ice sculpture festivals in Jelgava amazes with impressive ice pieces of art, created by artists from around the Globe. During three days of festival every evening there is a possibility to enjoy live music, light games and multimedia shows.

Festival city

Ice sculpture festival
February 9 - 11

Latvia celebrates 100

Preparing for the Latvian century celebration, a sculptural environment object "Time wheel 100" ("Laika rats 100") created by sculptor Karlis Ile will be opened in Jelgava on May 4. Ten stylized human images from steel will be created within the wheel of environmental object, each of them will be holding ten stones, symbolizing decades of existence of Latvia. During the visit of this object, you will be able to meet city history, search and found angular ideas, implemented in this piece of art by its creator. Interactive environment object, Lielā Street 38

Graffiti with Latvian code

See the unusual graffiti, created during the artistic project "Power signs for Latvia". In the foot of Mitava bridge on the façade of Jelgava Student theatre building there are six signs of Latvian power, crossed by colourful threads, symbolizing Latvian regions. Latvian power sign graffiti, J.Čakste boulevard 5a

See from above!

In Palace island you will be able to visit new-built 20-meter-high viewing tower and leisurely watch wild horses, Lielupe floodland meadows and river landscape. Go to the excursion with environmental guide and find out more about the unique natural territory within the city environment. Visit viewing tower at Palace island escorted by environmental guide +371 20264343

In the biggest park of sand sculpture in Baltics artists from around the Globe create huge sculptures from 1000 tons of sand. Concerts, workshops and entertainment for kids are also held during the festival.

Sand sculpture festival
June 9 - 10

Woodpark in the city

In comfortable Langervalde forest network of foot-paths of different length will lead you to the peaceful walk or bicycle ride by the forest through decorative plank-ways and foot-bridges. In the forest there is a possibility to meet wooden and metal animals – moose and deer. It is always beautiful – in Spring one may see how the Nature is waking-up in Fall see the mellow autumn in the cover of beautiful leaves.

- Kurzeme governmental institutions,
- partly preserved interior from the 18th century.

In 2018:

- main building of Latvia University of Agriculture
- Museum of Jelgava Palace
- Vault of the Dukes of Courland

The largest Baroque palace in Baltic states as a residence of Duke of Courland and Semigallia was built in the 18th century upon the project of Italian architect F.B.Rastrelli. In early 20th century residence of Courland governor and governmental institutions were located in Jelgava palace. Interior from the 18th century is partly preserved in the palace and premises were used as apartments for Russian emperor house members and guests. Today Jelgava palace is the main building of Latvia University of Agriculture and Museum of Jelgava Palace and also temporarily hosts Jelgava State Gymnasium. Museum offers different educational and entertainment programmes – calligraphic workshop, gourmet programme, when you can enjoy hot chocolate in company with court ladies and different creative workshops for kids. Despite that there are comprehensive façade reconstruction works, which will be finished in 2020, palace is open for guests. Lielā Street 2, +371 63005617; www.jelgavaspils.lv

Holy Trinity Church Tower of Jelgava

First stone-wall Lutheran parish church in Europe; construction was started in 1574. Hundred years ago it was the most luxurious Jelgava temple church, but it was destroyed during the Second World War, only the tower preserved. Today it is the most visited Jelgava tourism object with interactive multimedia exhibitions about first Latvian presidents, Jelgava symbols and the most important historical facts, Holy Trinity Church and national costumes of Zemgale. In the Tower there is tourism information centre, Exposition hall, conference hall and restaurant. On the 9th floor of the Tower from viewing platform you may see the cityscape.

In 2018:

- Rundale Palace exhibition "The family vault of the Dukes of Courland": information about persons, buried in the vaults, restored funeral clothes.

Place of disposition for two dynasties of Dukes – Ketlers and Birones, created within two centuries. Hundred years ago vaults at south-eastern corner of the Jelgava Palace were inaccessible for visitors, as long as from 1913 until 1914 Dr.med. A.Rafaels performed inventory of vaults, but was unable to finish, so the tombs were closed. During centuries family vault were cruelly destroyed and plundered, but today they have returned their initial meaning and appearance of great historical and art memorial. The family vault of Dukes of Courland in Jelgava Palace are the biggest such type of place of disposition in Latvia and one of the few places of disposition of governor's dynasties in the World, accessible for visitors. 24 representatives of Kettler dynasty and 6 representatives of Biron dynasty are buried there. In premises near the vault there are restored funeral clothes and other evidences of history. Lielā Street 2, +371 63962197, 26499151

Memorial Museum of Adolf Alunans

Wooden building at Filozofu Street 3 is a place where father of Latvian theatre Adolfs Alunans lived for his last two years – from 1910 until 1912. 100 years ago this building was a country house for Jelgava second credit bank director Žans Bergmais, where Alunans family leased second floor with kitchen, five small rooms and roof balcony with a view on Jelgava wide gardens and meadows up to Ģintermuiža. In 1968 a public museum – Alunans Memorial House was opened here. Building was renovated and regenerated in 2010 – premises arranged like they were during Alunans lifetime, allowing to feel the early 20th authentic century atmosphere. In the museum one could find out creative work of Alunans, history of Latvian theatre and learn both play fragment and anecdote dialogs on the museum stage. In the museum you will be also able to dress-up in early 20th century clothes and take a retro-style pictures. Filozofu Street 3, +371 63021180; www.alunans.lv
